

STEP Arabia Branch Conference 2012

Tuesday 27 March 2012
Dubai, UAE

STEP
Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners

STEP Arabia is delighted to announce details for the 2012 Branch Conference & Dinner. Taking place at The Address Dubai Mall Hotel, the event will be the premier learning and networking opportunity for Private Client professionals in the Middle East.

The conference programme is designed to more than just inform; it seeks to train delegates in key skills critical in international Estate Planning. Whilst the topics will primarily be focused on matters relating to Middle East Estate Planning they will also examine macro issues facing STEP professional's worldwide, using speakers from a number of countries including UK, Mainland Europe and North America.

The full programme and details for the event will be available shortly, however we encourage those interested in attending to add the conference to their calendar and take advantage of the Early Bird registration fees valid up to 28 February 2012. The registration fee includes the full day conference, cocktail reception and dinner.

We very much hope that you will support STEP in the Middle East in making this conference the event for knowledge exchange and networking in the region.

The conference will offer 6* hours of CPD.

TOPICS WILL INCLUDE:

- Compatibility of UAE Commercial Structures with Succession Planning - "Connecting the Dots"
- Middle East Wills & Estate Planning
- TIEA's - Where is Tax Information Exchange Leading us in the World of Wealth Planning?
- Insurance Solutions for Estate Planning
